NARRATIVE:

Rice, a documented member of the East Coast Crip gang, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 21. He has been convicted of robbery, multiple cases of transporting and selling narcotics, multiple petty theft with prior, prison escape, and fugitive from justice. Rice served multiple state prison terms, the longest a four (4) year prison term for transporting and selling narcotics. Rice was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 6th 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Rice absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Rice qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transporting and selling narcotics meets the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
